Taxes covered

2. - (1) This Arrangement shall apply to taxes on income and on capital gains imposed on behalf of a territory, irrespective of the manner in which they are levied.

(2) There shall be regarded as taxes on income and on capital gains all taxes imposed on total income, or on elements of income, including taxes on gains from the alienation of movable or immovable property.

(3) The existing taxes which are the subject of this Arrangement are:

(a) in the United Kingdom:

- (i) the income tax;
- (ii) the corporation tax; and

The competent authorities of the territories shall notify each other of any substantial changes which are made in their respective taxation laws.

General definitions

3. - (1) For the purposes of this Arrangement, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) the term "United Kingdom" means Great Britain and Northern Ireland, including any area outside the territorial sea of the United Kingdom which in accordance with international law has been or may hereafter be designated, under the laws of the United Kingdom concerning the Continental Shelf, as an area within which the rights of the United Kingdom with respect to the sea bed and sub-soil and their natural resources may be exercised;

(b) the term "the Falkland Islands" means the colony of the Falkland Islands, the territorial sea of the Falkland Islands and any area outside the territorial sea of the Falkland Islands which is a designated area (and for the purposes of this subparagraph "designated area" has the same meaning as it has in Proclamation Number 1 of 1991 of the Falkland Islands) or any other area in relation to which the Crown in right of government of the Falkland Islands exercises jurisdiction over the exploration and exploitation of the non-living resources of the seabed and sub-soil;

(c) the terms "a territory" and "the other territory" mean the United Kingdom or the Falkland Islands, as the context requires;

(d) the term "person" includes an individual, a company and any other body of persons, but does not include a partnership;

(e) the term "company" means any body corporate or any entity which is treated as a body corporate for tax purposes;

(f) the terms "enterprise of a territory" and "enterprise of the other territory" mean respectively an enterprise carried on by a resident of a territory and an enterprise carried on by a resident of the other territory;

(g) the term "international traffic" means any transport by a ship or aircraft operated by an enterprise of a territory, except when the ship or aircraft is operated solely between places in the other territory;

(h) the term "competent authority" means, in the case of the United Kingdom the Commissioners of Inland Revenue or their authorised representative, and in the case of the Falkland Islands the Commissioner of Taxation or his authorised representative.

(2) As regards the application of this Arrangement at any time by a territory, any term not defined therein shall, unless the context otherwise requires, have the meaning which it has at that time under the laws of that territory for the purposes of the taxes to which this Arrangement applies, any meaning under the applicable tax laws of that territory prevailing over a meaning given to the term under other laws of that territory.

Residence

4. - (1) For the purposes of this Arrangement, the term "resident of a territory" means any person who, under the law of that territory, is liable to tax therein by reason of his domicile, residence, place of management, place of incorporation or any other criterion of a similar nature, and also includes that territory and any political subdivision or local authority thereof. This term, however, does not include any person who is liable to tax in that territory only if he derives income or capital gains from sources therein.

(2) Where by reason of the provisions of sub-paragraph (1) of this Paragraph an individual is a resident of both territories, then his status shall be determined as follows:

(a) he shall be deemed to be a resident only of the territory in which he has a permanent home available to him; if he has a permanent home available to him in both territories, he shall be deemed to be a resident only of the territory with which his personal and economic relations are closer (centre of vital interests);

(b) if the territory in which he has his centre of vital interests cannot be determined, or if he has not a permanent home available to him in either territory, he shall be deemed to be a resident only of the territory in which he has an habitual abode;

(c) if he has an habitual abode in both territories or in neither of them, the competent authorities of the territories shall settle the question by mutual agreement.

(3) Where by reason of the provisions of sub-paragraph (1) of this Paragraph a person other than an individual is a resident of both territories, then it shall be deemed to be a resident only of the territory in which its place of effective management is situated.

Permanent establishment

5. - (1) For the purposes of this Arrangement, the term "permanent establishment" means a fixed place of business through which the business of an enterprise is wholly or partly carried on.

(2) The term "permanent establishment" includes especially:

(a) a place of management;

(b) a branch;

(c) an office;

(d) a factory;

(e) a workshop;

(f) a mine, an oil or gas well, a quarry or any other place of exploration, extraction or exploitation of natural resources; and

(g) an installation or structure used for the exploration or exploitation of natural resources.

(3) A building site, a construction, assembly or installation project or supervisory activities connected therewith constitute a permanent establishment but only where such site, project or activities continue for more than six months.

(4) Notwithstanding the preceding provisions of this Paragraph, the term "permanent establishment" shall be deemed not to include:

(a) the use of facilities solely for the purpose of storage, display or delivery of goods or merchandise belonging to the enterprise;

(b) the maintenance of a stock of goods or merchandise belonging to the enterprise solely for the purpose of storage, display or delivery;

(c) the maintenance of a stock of goods or merchandise belonging to the enterprise solely for the purpose of processing by another enterprise;

(d) the maintenance of a fixed place of business solely for the purpose of purchasing goods or merchandise, or of collecting information, for the enterprise;

(e) the maintenance of a fixed place of business solely for the purpose of carrying on, for the enterprise, any other activity of a preparatory or auxiliary character;

(f) the maintenance of a fixed place of business solely for any combination of activities mentioned in paragraphs (a) to (e), of this sub-paragraph, provided that the overall activity of the fixed place of business resulting from this combination is of a preparatory or auxiliary character.

(5) Notwithstanding the provisions of sub-paragraphs (1) and (2) of this Paragraph, where a person, other than an agent of an independent status to whom sub-paragraph (6) of this Paragraph applies, is acting on behalf of an enterprise, and has, and habitually exercises, in a territory an authority to conclude contracts on behalf of the enterprise, that enterprise shall be deemed to have a permanent establishment in that territory in respect of any activities which that person undertakes for the enterprise, unless the activities of such a person are limited to those mentioned in sub-paragraph (4) of this Paragraph which, if exercised through a fixed place of business, would not make that fixed place of business a permanent establishment under the provisions of that sub-paragraph.

(6) An enterprise shall not be deemed to have a permanent establishment in a territory merely because it carries on business in that territory through a broker, general commission agent or any other agent of an independent status, provided that such persons are acting in the ordinary course of their business.

(7) The fact that a company which is a resident of a territory controls or is controlled by a company which is a resident of the other territory, or which carries on business in that other territory (whether through a permanent establishment or otherwise), shall not of itself constitute either company a permanent establishment of the other.

Income from immovable property

6. - (1) Income derived by a resident of a territory from immovable property (including income from agriculture or forestry) situated in the other territory may be taxed in that other territory.

(2) The term "immovable property" shall have the meaning which it has under the law of the territory in which the property in question is situated. The term shall in any case include property accessory to immovable property, livestock and equipment used in agriculture and forestry, rights to which the provisions of general law respecting landed property apply, usufruct of immovable property and rights to variable or fixed payments as consideration for the working of, or the right to work, mineral deposits, sources and other natural resources; ships and aircraft shall not be regarded as immovable property.

(3) The provisions of sub-paragraph (1) of this Paragraph shall apply to income derived from the direct use, letting, or use in any other form of immovable property.

(4) The provisions of sub-paragraphs (1) and (3) of this Paragraph shall also apply to the income from immovable property of an enterprise and to income from immovable property used for the performance of independent personal services.

Business profits

7. - (1) The profits of an enterprise of a territory shall be taxable only in that territory unless the enterprise carries on business in the other territory through a permanent establishment situated therein. If the enterprise carries on business as aforesaid, the profits of the enterprise may be taxed in the other territory but only so much of them as is attributable to that permanent establishment.

(2) Subject to the provisions of sub-paragraph (3) of this Paragraph, where an enterprise of a territory carries on business in the other territory through a permanent establishment situated therein, there shall in each territory be attributed to that permanent establishment the profits which it might be expected to make if it were a distinct and separate enterprise engaged in the same or similar activities under the same or similar conditions and dealing wholly independently with the enterprise of which it is a permanent establishment.

(3) In determining the profits of a permanent establishment, there shall be allowed as deductions expenses which are incurred for the purposes of the permanent establishment, including a reasonable allocation of executive and general administrative expenses incurred for the purposes of the enterprise as a whole, whether in the territory in which the permanent establishment is situated or elsewhere.

(4) Insofar as it has been customary in a territory to determine according to its law the profits to be attributed to a permanent establishment on the basis of an apportionment of the total profits of the enterprise to its various parts, nothing in sub-paragraph (2) of this Paragraph shall preclude that territory from determining the profits to be taxed by such an apportionment as may be customary; the method of apportionment shall, however, be such that the result will be in accordance with the principles contained in this Paragraph.

(5) For the purposes of the preceding sub-paragraphs, the profits to be attributed to the permanent establishment shall be determined by the same method year by year unless there is good and sufficient reason to the contrary.

(6) No profits shall be attributed to a permanent establishment by reason of the mere purchase by that permanent establishment of goods or merchandise for the enterprise.

(7) Where profits include items of income or capital gains which are dealt with separately in other Paragraphs of this Arrangement, then the provisions of those Paragraphs shall not be affected by the provisions of this Paragraph.

(8) Where under the provisions of this Paragraph profits are attributable to a permanent establishment situated in a territory and those profits are remitted in whole or in part out of that territory, then the profits so remitted shall not be subject to any greater charge to tax in that territory than if they had not been so remitted.

(b) profits from the use, maintenance or rental of containers (including trailers and related equipment for the transport of containers) used for the transport of goods or merchandise; where such rental or such use, maintenance or rental, as the case may be, is incidental to the operation of ships or aircraft in international traffic.

(3) The provisions of sub-paragraphs (1) and (2) of this Paragraph shall also apply to profits from the participation in a pool, a joint business or an international operating agency, but only to so much of the profits so derived as is attributable to the participant in proportion to its share in the joint operation.

Associated enterprises

9. - (1) Where:

- (a) an enterprise of a territory participates directly or indirectly in the management, control or capital of an enterprise of the other territory; or
- (b) the same persons participate directly or indirectly in the management, control or capital of an enterprise of a territory and an enterprise of the other territory; and in either case conditions are made or imposed between the two enterprises in their commercial or financial relations which differ from those which would be made between independent enterprises, then any profits which would, but for those conditions, have accrued to one of the enterprises, but, by reason of those conditions, have not so accrued, may be included in the profits of that enterprise and taxed accordingly.

(2) Where a territory includes in the profits of an enterprise of that territory, and taxes accordingly, profits on which an enterprise of the other territory has been charged to tax in that other territory and the profits so included are profits which would have accrued to the enterprise of the first-mentioned territory if the conditions made between the two enterprises had been those which would have been made between independent enterprises, then that other territory shall make an appropriate adjustment to the amount of the tax charged therein on those profits. In determining such adjustment, due regard shall be had to the other provisions of this Arrangement and the competent authorities of the territories shall if necessary consult each other.

(3) The term "dividends" as used in this Paragraph means income from shares, or other rights, not being debt-claims, participating in profits, as well as income from other corporate rights which is subjected to the same taxation treatment as income from shares by the laws of the territory of which the company making the distribution is a resident and also includes any other item which, under the law of the territory of which the company paying the dividend is a resident, is treated as a dividend or distribution of a company.

(4) The provisions of sub-paragraphs (1) and (2) of this Paragraph shall not apply if the beneficial owner of the dividends, being a resident of a territory, carries on business in the other territory of which the company paying the dividends is a resident, through a permanent establishment situated therein, or performs in that other territory independent personal services from a fixed base situated therein, and the holding in respect of which the dividends are paid is effectively connected with such permanent establishment or fixed base. In such case, the provisions of Paragraph 7 or Paragraph 14, as the case may be, shall apply.

(5) Where a company which is a resident of a territory derives profits or income from the other territory, that other territory may not impose any tax on the dividends paid by the company, except insofar as such dividends are paid to a resident of that other territory or insofar as the holding in respect of which the dividends are paid is effectively connected with a permanent establishment or a fixed base situated in that other territory, nor subject the company's undistributed profits to a tax on undistributed profits, even if the dividends paid or the undistributed profits consist wholly or partly of profits or income arising in that other territory.

In such case, the provisions of Paragraph 7 or Paragraph 14 of this Arrangement, as the case may be, shall apply.

(4) Where, by reason of a special relationship between the payer and the beneficial owner or between both of them and some other person, the amount of the interest paid exceeds, for whatever reason, the amount which would have been agreed upon by the payer and the beneficial owner in the absence of such relationship, the provisions of this Paragraph shall apply only to the last-mentioned amount. In such case, the excess part of the payment shall remain taxable according to the law of each territory, due regard being had to the other provisions of this Arrangement.

(2) Subject to the provisions of the law of the Falkland Islands regarding the allowance as a credit against Falkland Islands tax of tax payable in a territory outside the Falkland Islands (which shall not affect the general principle hereof):

(3) For the purposes of sub-paragraphs (1) and (2) of this Paragraph, profit, income and chargeable gains owned by a resident of a territory which may be taxed in the other territory in accordance with this Arrangement shall be deemed to arise from sources in that other territory.

(4) Subject to sub-paragraph (5) of this Paragraph, for the purposes of sub-paragraph (1) of this Paragraph, the term "Falkland Islands tax payable" shall be deemed to include any amount which would have been payable as Falkland Islands tax for any year but for an exemption or reduction of tax granted for that year or any part thereof under:

(a) section 3 of the Taxes and Duties (Special Exemptions) Ordinance 1987 so far as this provision was in force on, and has not been modified since 30th December 1996, or has been modified only in minor respects so as not to affect its general character; or

(b) any other provision which may subsequently be made granting an exemption or reduction of tax which is agreed by the competent authorities of the territories to be of a substantially similar character, if it has not been modified thereafter or has been modified only in minor respects so as not to affect its general character.

(5) Relief from United Kingdom tax by virtue of sub-paragraph (4) shall not be given:

Non-discrimination

- (b) to supply information which is not obtainable under the laws or in the normal course of the administration of that or of the other territory;
